

Chaplain, Aide Help In Saigon

A Catholic chaplain and his assistant in Saigon, Viet Nam, have launched a project to aid needy youngsters in Saigon.

Catholic Chaplain John F. Russell, a lieutenant colonel from Manchester, N. H., and Spec. 4 Robert L. Holt of Torrance started the project by delivering a Sunday collection to the Centre Caritas Orphanage in Saigon.

The orphanage, which cares for children suffering from malnutrition, takes children from throughout Viet Nam.

The two men decided the orphanage needed more help that the single collection could provide and Project Camillus, named for the patron saint of the sick, was born.

Both men have issued appeals to personal friends in their home states for donations to help the youngsters. They have received numerous boxes of clothes, baby bottles, soap, and even a pair of roller skates to date.

Father Russell is chaplain at the U. S. Army Headquarters Area Command in Saigon.

Head Start Clinics Set By Doctors

Members of the South Bay and Long Beach chapters of the American Optometric Association have announced plans to conduct eye clinics in several Head Start Centers in this area.

One such clinic, in which 48 children at the Toberman House Head Start Center in San Pedro received visual tests, has been conducted.

Others will follow at the 38 South Bay Head Start Centers, according to Dr. Edwin L. Glover, president of the South Bay chapter, and Dr. Michael Wietzman of the Long Beach chapter.

Wives of the doctors will assist in the program, according to Mrs. Edwin Glover. "We can save the doctors' time so that many more children can be tested," she explained.

Promotion Announced

The promotion of Keith W. Jones to the newly created position of director of marketing services for Western Air Lines has been announced. He was formerly Western's regional sales manager in Los Angeles.

In his new capacity at the company's headquarters in Los Angeles, Jones will coordinate sales activities between the company's headquarters and field operations. Particular emphasis will be placed on the company's major sales promotions such as "Sunbreak" and "North Country Adventures" campaigns.

People don't often realize when they're afraid, because fear has so many disguises. There's only one way to live without fear. And that's to conquer it — day by day — with the growing spiritual strength made possible by divine Love. Hear this public lecture, "Life Unafraid," by WILLIAM HENRY ALTON, member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

Sunday Series Slated

A series of Sunday evening services, "The District Speaks," will begin Sunday at the Bethesda Assembly of God, 1473 W. 182nd St. Services will be conducted each Sunday at 7 p.m. through March 5.

First speaker will be Rev. L. E. Halvorson, district superintendent. As superintendent, the Rev. Mr. Halvorson is responsible for the administration of the district programs in some 400 Southland churches. He also serves on the Board of Presbyters of the General Council of Assemblies of God.

He will deliver a report on the work of the men's fellowship programs throughout the district this Sunday.

The Sunday evening series will feature district officials and department directors of the Southern California District Council of Assemblies of God.

Other speakers will include the Rev. T. C. Cunningham, assistant superintendent and missionary secretary; the Rev. W. H. Robertson, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Florence Beck, director of the Women's Mission Council; the Rev. O. C. Budge, president of Southern California College at Costa Mesa; the Rev. Everett Stenhouse, president of Christ's Ambassadors youth organization; the Rev. Norman Field, director of the Sunday School department, and Don Hall, Teen Challenge director.

eral Baptist Conference, presenting a charter to the congregation at the 10:30 a.m. services.

A communion service at 7 p.m. Sunday with the Rev. Mr. Youngquist presiding will climax Charter Sunday observances. Special music will be provided at both services, and nursery care will be provided.

Assuming the pastorate of the church on March 1 will be the Rev. Ron Bolt, graduate of Wheaton College and Fuller Theological Seminary. He presently is serving the First Baptist Church of Redondo as young pastor.

The newly organized church is now using facilities of the Seventh-day Adventist church at the corner of Acacia and Sonoma. Sunday services be-

Third Lesson In Series at Area Church

"The Way It Works" will be the subject of Sunday's sermon at the Redondo Torrance Church of Religious Science, 907 Knob Hill Ave.

Third in a series of sermons explaining the basic principles of Religious Science, Sunday's topic will be followed by "What It Does" and "How to Use It."

Services are held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. with the Rev. Dr. Frank E. Richelieu, minister, conducting.

Airport Meeting

Members of the Torrance Airport Commission will meet tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the city hall, 3031 Torrance Blvd., according to John Blaisdell, commission president.
